1. Mr. Corbin Allardice, Executive Director of the staff of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, called [REDACTED] to request that CIA make available to the Committee any pertinent information it might have concerning [REDACTED] nominee to be a member of the Atomic Energy Commission, with particular emphasis on any relatives [REDACTED] or his wife might have abroad. [REDACTED] referred the matter to me, and I discussed it with Col. Edwards. I then learned that Sen. Hickenlooper had already called the DCI regarding [REDACTED] Dr. Willard [REDACTED]
